

Author, Wife, Mother & Grandmother

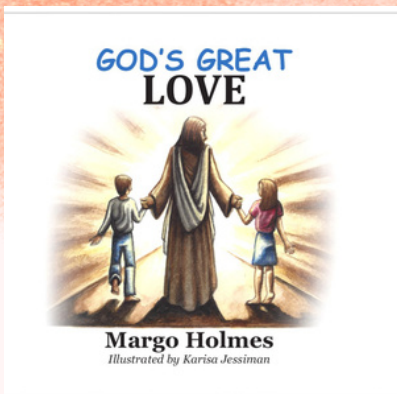

Margo Holmes

Margo and her husband, Bill, reside in Lake Placid, Florida, the Caladium Capital of the World, where Bill has farmed caladium bulbs for many years.

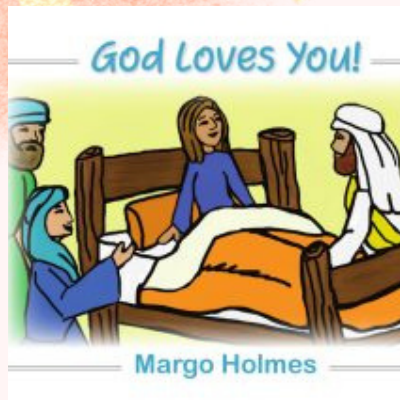

They have six children and fifteen grandchildren. Since the beginning of their marriage, Margo and Bill have partnered as servants of God. For many years they pastored a church and ministered at assisted living facilities.

Margo speaks, by invitation, at churches, conferences and retreats. Margo is passionate about the game of tennis, but Margo is even more passionate about sharing God's great love to all the world.

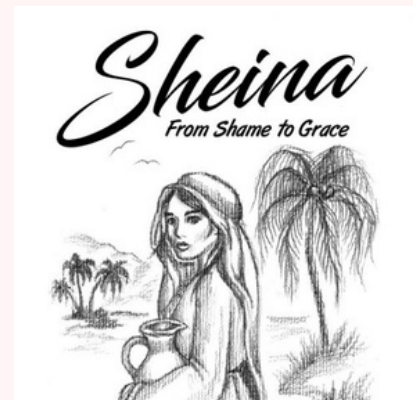

AUTHOR OF OVER 25 PUBLISHED BOOKS

7-12 Year Old Readers

3-6 Year Old Readers

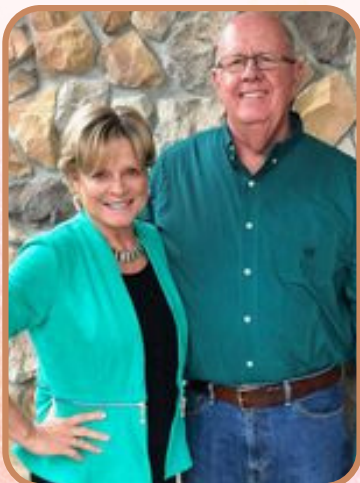

Teen and Adult Readers

Facebook

www.margoholmes.com

Email

A heritage from the Lord

All your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the peace of your children. Isaiah 54:13

Interview Questions

1. How many books have you written?
2. How many are published, and what age groups are they for?
3. What motivated you to write so many children's books?
4. What trauma did you face in your childhood that gave you such a heart to reach children with the Gospel?
5. When were you saved and how did it happen?
6. What are your ministry plans for the future?
7. How can people reach you and purchase your books?

INTERVIEWS

"God's Great Love" book series with Bob and Jane D'Andrea

Home Keepers Interview New Book - "Sheina"

Interview on "God's Great Love" Series